A reception and dance in honor of Gen. Mr. and Mrs. Otis Coles Give First Of Series Of Dinners At Toltec Club

The first of a series of dinners to which Mr. and Mrs. Otis Coles will be hosts during the season was given on Tuesday evening at the Toltec club.

The table for the service was exquisitely dainty in detail. In further beautifying the appointments, Ophele roses and "hobby" branches were utilized in decoration and candles of Nile green, blindingly white with the flowers, shed a soft light over the service and beautifully scented maid matrons and escorts, who were seated at one large table, the roses and dainty foliage of the "hobby" branches were placed in silver and crystal vases and vases, which were placed the length of the table, and the candles burned in holders of crystal.

For more than a quarter of a century "A Gift from Hixson's" has been the most appreciated of them all.

It hardly seems possible but the calendar shows that next week is Christmas.

We have not only increased our Christmas sales force, but arranged the working hours to keep our store open in the evenings without any hardship to our employees.

We again remind you that a gift from Hixson's is a permanent token of your love and esteem.

Surely there is nothing you can give which possesses more permanent qualities than the gift that is wrought in gold and silver and precious stones.

We have selected a 1919 Christmas stock which we are proud of. To describe it in detail would be an endless task; so we are now displaying in our windows hundreds of items that will interest you.

In our store you will find scores of splendidly appropriate gifts for every one—mother, father, brother, sister, son, daughter, sweetheart, lover and friend.

Come in and let us show you this stock. You will as thoroughly enjoy the choosing as you do the giving.

Service Flag Presentation Marks Trinity Women's Harvest Day Social

ONE of the most enjoyable events of the year's program was the "harvest home social" given by Mrs. L. J. Ayers at her home on North Florence street on Tuesday afternoon.

The guests were the women of Trinity church's missionary society and the hostess was assisted in entertaining by officers of the society.

Each woman received from Mrs. P. W. Crowl a bouquet of an artificial leaf, on which was written a Bible verse concerning the commemoration of the service flag.

Mrs. D. M. Smith told of the origin and intent of the "harvest home" social, which was a new social service.
